DAC SEEKS INVESTMENTS IN HIGH-QUALITY U.S., FOREIGN AND GLOBAL COMPANIES WITH A HISTORY OF SIGNIFICANT, CONSISTENT DIVIDEND INCREASES THAT PROVIDE POTENTIAL OPPORTUNITIES FOR ABOVE-AVERAGE CAPITAL APPRECIATION WITH ATTRACTIVE, RISING INCOME.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES FOR EQUITIES

Companies must pass our rigid screen and demonstrate:

- Dividends that have risen consistently and significantly, year after year, for a decade or more.
- Consistent growth of earnings that we believe provide the ability to pay and grow dividends.
- Favored companies in a growing global economy provide or guide essential products and services, such as consumer goods and services, energy, healthcare, technology, materials, and industrials.

Our research evaluates company growth rates and financial strength, consistent earnings growth across economic cycles, evidence of strong leadership, growing global brands and exposure, and transparency.

- Since 1926, dividends have accounted for approximately one-third of the total return of the stock market, while capital appreciation contributed two-thirds.<sup>1</sup>
- Dividend yield, as a component of total return, is historically less volatile than price appreciation.<sup>1</sup>
- We focus on companies that increase their dividends, not absolute dividend yield.<sup>1</sup>

OPPORTUNITY OF MIDSTREAM ENERGY ENTITIES

- Midstream energy entities fund pipelines, storage and infrastructure to transport oil and gas across the United States.
- Midstream energy entities play a critical role, offering participation in the energy sector without exposure to the risks of exploration.
- The fees that midstream energy entities charge for transporting petroleum products are regulated by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) and indexed to inflation based on the Producer Price Index (PPI).
- As a result of FERC oversight, earnings tend to be stable, but partnership returns may be limited on the upside.

OWNERSHIP IN MASTER LIMITED PARTNERSHIPS. Master Limited Partnerships (MLPs) are limited partnerships that trade as units on public securities exchanges. MLPs are generally held in an investor's account to generate income. A substantial portion of the considered a return of capital, tax-deferred until the units are sold. Investors should consult a tax advisor regarding individual circumstances.

Investors in MLPs should determine the tax consequences of investing in MLPs based on their specific circumstances and should consult with their tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of an investment strategy that includes MLPs. Investors in MLPs should be aware that any changes in the current tax law could potentially result in future and retroactive tax consequences and should consult their tax advisors regarding any tax law changes. Investors in MLPs may be required to file tax returns and pay tax in each state in which the MLP operates. Individual retirement accounts and retirement plans investing in MLPs may be required to report unrelated business taxable income (UBTI) and pay unrelated business income tax (UBIT). Tax reporting information for MLPs is provided to investors on an annual Schedule K-1 issued by an MLP. Investors may be required to request an extension of time to file their tax returns if an MLP has not issued a Schedule K-1 by April 15.
